Wildlife Obsessions Taxidermy, led by Washington State taxidermist Chris Miller, is proud to introduce their latest masterpiece: the world's finest preserved 9-foot tall Sasquatch. This incredible creation aims to captivate the imagination of visitors to Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts, a newly established store conveniently located at the entrance of Deception Pass State Park - Washington's most popular park, receiving over 2,000,000 visitors per year.

Opened on August 14th, 2023, Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts offers visitors an extraordinary range of products and services, making it the ultimate one-stop destination for travelers exploring Deception Pass State Park and beyond. From souvenirs and gifts to a well-stocked trading post, Northwest-inspired chocolates and candies, camping equipment, hiking gear, and beach accessories - the store promises to cater to every visitor's needs. Furthermore, Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts will be entirely dedicated to celebrating the enigmatic lore of the Sasquatch, ensuring that all things Sasquatch can be found within its walls.

"We are thrilled to collaborate with Wildlife Obsessions Taxidermy and unveil our remarkable 9-foot tall preserved Sasquatch," said Scott Meaker, Partner at Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts. "This iconic creature has intrigued and fascinated people for centuries, and we wanted to offer a truly unique and authentic representation of this legend. We believe this masterpiece will become a must-see attraction for visitors to Deception Pass State Park, Whidbey and the San Juan Islands."

Chris Miller, the genius behind Wildlife Obsessions Taxidermy, shared his excitement about the project, stating, "Working on this project has been both challenging and incredibly rewarding. Our team worked meticulously to create a lifelike representation of the Sasquatch, paying close attention to every intricate detail. We are confident that visitors to Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts will be captivated by the realism and craftsmanship of our creation."

Squatchy's Souvenirs and Gifts aims to not only provide an unforgettable shopping experience but also become a valuable resource for park enthusiasts seeking information about Deception Pass State Park, hiking trails, camping spots, and local attractions. With its strategic location at the park's entrance, this store reinforces its commitment to supporting and enhancing visitors' overall experience.
