

Washington DC, USA (Newsworthy.ai) Monday Jul 3, 2023 @ 12:00 PM Eastern —

CitizenPortal.ai, a pioneering company using AI technology to power government transparency and civic engagement, is announcing an exceptional Independence Day promotion beginning on July 3rd and continuing throughout the week. Recognizing the symbolic significance of this historic date, the company is offering premium memberships at a special rate of $17.76.

Citizen Portal is a unique platform allowing citizens to search, find, and share video clips of their public officials' statements, facilitating improved communication, accessibility, and transparency between public figures and the people they serve. The discounted premium membership provides extensive access to a rich variety of content, including state, city, county, school board, and national video content.

"Citizen Portal was born out of a commitment to improve communication, accessibility, and transparency in local and national government," said Paul Allen, Co-Founder of CitizenPortal.ai. "Our Independence Day promotion reflects that commitment by empowering our users to stay informed and participate actively in their communities."

Citizens can seize this opportunity to stay informed and get involved in their local, state, and national communities by visiting <http://try.citizenportal.ai/1776/>

CitizenPortal is powered by AI technology built by Soar.com, Inc., a company renowned for its forward-thinking approach to leveraging the power of artificial intelligence. Founded by Clint Carlos and Paul Allen, co-founder of Ancestry.com, Soar.com, Inc. is dedicated to developing technologies that revolutionize how people communicate and work.

About CitizenPortal.ai: CitizenPortal.ai is a platform that bridges the gap between citizens and public officials by providing easy access to video clips of public statements. It enhances transparency, promotes better communication, and encourages active participation in local communities.
