“Even though I didn't know it, I've always been part of the LGBTQ+ community. My mom, who lived her life mostly hiding who she was from our family, was able to create a wonderful community around us that was full of love, support, and a lot of FUN!! This year's Studio 420, Throwback PRIDE Brunch, is more than just a party; it's a tribute to the strength and resilience of the LGBTQ+ community and a celebration of the progress we have made. So come and dance with us as we rejoice in the spirit of love and acceptance, and embrace our true selves with pride and joy."

- Tanya Osborne, Founder of The CannaDiva

"Marching proudly in the New York City Pride parade in 2006 was a transformative moment for me as a lesbian woman. It was the first time I waved that rainbow flag high, feeling unapologetically proud of who I am and the community I belong to. Pride isn't just about visibility; it's about celebrating our authenticity and honoring those who paved the way for us to live openly and authentically. We're excited for our event, paying homage to Studio 54 with an immersive experience where cannabis and LGBTQAI2+ pride intersect, celebrating in style and solidarity. We support spaces where freedom, expression, and inclusivity reign supreme."

- Lisa Snyder, Co-Founder of Tokeativity

Tokeativity® and The CannaDiva are upholding the tradition of celebrating Pride in NYC while advancing inclusivity and acceptance within the cannabis industry. They proudly embrace their roles in the LGBTQIA+ community, contributing to its growth and recognition. With an abundance of talent, expertise, and passion driving this meaningful event, Lisa of Tokeativity® and Tanya of The CannaDiva are thrilled to continue building momentum and raising awareness for inclusivity and acceptance within their networks in both the cannabis and LGBTQIA+ communities.

About The CannaDiva

A community of Women supporting Women at every stage of their cannabis journey, The CannaDiva is an intersectional community of women supporting women at every stage of their cannabis journey. Its goal is to provide a safe space for like-minded women to meet, learn, expand their knowledge and have fun with a mission to create an environment where everyone can get inspiration, advice, share stories or anything else without judgment. It prioritizes authentic connection over traditional networking and strives to help each other reach our goals. Its members come from all walks of life and they band together to form a phenomenal network that can help women reach their fullest potential. About Tokeativity®

Tokeativity is the largest community for cannabis and plant medicine loving feminists in the world. Based in Portland, Oregon, they have hosted over 350 cannabis friendly, private and public events across the globe since 2017 in North America, South Africa & Europe. Tokeativity is passionate about the normalization of plant medicine and celebration of consumption culture. Their Tokeativity Womanifesto envisions a world in which the cannabis, psychedelic and intersectional feminist movements heal our communities and our Earth, that Women and Black, Indigenous, Hispanic, Latinx, Asian, Pacific Islander and People of Color own at least half of the world's most thriving and sustainable businesses, people are free to make choices around their consumption and that plant medicine consuming mothers and parents don't have fear of losing their children.
