SharedXpertise Media, publishers of HRO Today magazine and HRO Today Global, producers of the Baker's Dozen Customer Satisfaction Ratings, and organizers of the HRO Today Forums and Educational Events are combining their successful educational events on Inclusion, Employee Wellness, and Workplace Culture Events into a single event, ENGAGE! 2024, on June 10-11 at the InterContinental Chicago Magnificent Mile.

ENGAGE! merges insight from popular HRO Today conferences like the Inclusion Summit and the Culture & Engagement Summit with a fresh perspective on cultivating a thriving work environment. HR leaders in attendance will walk away with actionable strategies, best practices, and a renewed passion for leveraging human potential to its fullest.

Centered on employee engagement and retention subjects, this larger, more dynamic event will feature a diverse agenda with multiple tracks plus various networking opportunities for HR leaders. The multi-track agenda will take a deep dive into the pivotal role of HR in creating and sustaining a healthy, engaged, and inclusive workforce. Engage! 2024 is set to transform how we view company culture, diversity, employee wellness, and engagement.

Some key takeaways from ENGAGE! 2024 will include strategies for cultivating a robust company culture, best practices for championing diversity and inclusion, harnessing employee wellness as a productivity driver, and employee engagement techniques that boost ROI.
