Modish.ai is thrilled to announce its official iOS launch today. Even before today's grand unveiling, this cutting-edge app secured a notable rank as the 122nd most downloaded app under the Graphics and Design category on the Apple Store, heralding a seismic shift in the industry.

Meet the Executive Team

Bennie Thomas, CEO: With 22 years of executive-level sales experience, Bennie has served at industry leaders like SEGA GameWorks and Trifecta Management Group, working with esteemed clients such as the Raiders, Facebook, Google, Kaiser Permanente, and Wells Fargo. An expert in rental arbitrage, his flagship property is a six-figure success story in the real estate market.

Jasper Ale, CMO: Originally from Nigeria and a proud alumnus of Minnesota State University, Jasper serves as the Chief Marketing Officer. With expertise in Prompt Engineering, Mid Journey, and Astria, he is the genius behind visually compelling ads and videos. His vision is to take Modish.ai global, extending its transformative power beyond borders.

Neon Apps: The technological backbone of Modish.ai, Neon Apps has a proven track record in iOS application development, boasting over 200 top-performing apps. Their commitment to tech excellence serves as the foundation for Modish.ai.

What Modish.ai Does

Modish.ai is not just an application; it's a transformative engine for real estate and design. We empower realtors, leasing agents, home enthusiasts, and interior designers to upload existing listing photos to our revolutionary app, choose a design style, and repost. The result? Listings that show not just what is, but what could be—turning everyday spaces into luxurious possibilities.

Why Choose Modish.ai

- Immediate Acclaim: Already ranked 122 in the Graphics and Design category on the Apple Store prior to the formal launch, signaling a future market upheaval.
- Global Footprint: Successfully beta-tested in 8 different countries, with over 190 satisfied clients.
- Affordability Meets Luxury: Sidestep the traditional high costs of staging with our cost-effective digital solutions.

- User-Centric: Our intuitive interface can transform spaces with just a few clicks.
