Teavana Blossoming Rose Tea Latte (Canada)

Inspired by Japanese sakura tea, a rose syrup was created that's reminiscent of rose water and added rhubarb bitters and a hint of strawberry jam. The blossoming rose flavor pairs perfectly with the natural red-hue of rooibos tea but can be added to black and matcha tea as well. This latte looks as luscious as it tastes thanks to naturally flavored rose and hibiscus crystals delicately sprinkled on top for a fabulous floral finish. Available in participating stores in Canada.

Teavana Red Apple Rooibos Tea Latte (Europe)

A combination of red apple syrup and a delicate apple blossom dust complements this blend, creating a slightly sweeter and fruity version of the Rooibos Tea Latte. The seasonal apple flavor is enhanced by freeze-dried apples, sprinkled on top of the latte as 'red apple dust,' creating the perfect drink for a springtime photo. This caffeine-free latte is available in participating markets in Europe for a limited time only.
